AUBURN, AB5 0AA Auburn Academy is unveiling new brand identities for its academic units and select administrative units that will work alongside the Academy's primary brand identity. This will allow units to build more effective communications with members of the Academy community and others in a way that showcases their character and values.

These new identities will be used by units in their communications and collateral and will also be incorporated into forthcoming upgrades to the Academy's digital materials. The primary brand marks are showcased below.
